CANDIDATES.

FOR COUNTY CUPRT CLURK. We are authorized to announce Daniel L Kelick a candidate for County Court Clerk of Glies at next August election

Where Will You Sell Your Cotton? The planter wants the best price he can get, of course, and we want to see him get it. We wish he could get 15 cents. Where will you go to get it? If you desire to hold for market advantages, the Citizen columns show the best Nashville commission houses. If you want to sell, we think the Pulaski market is the best this season.

We have had complaint of incorrect weights here in the past but we cannot have it now. Mr. Tungett, the weigher, had Mr. McCor- guns, ammunition, etc. mack to test the depot scales last Friday in "presence of Messrs, W. F. Alexander, Ed. R. Cox, A. Solinsky, W. H. Pinkerton, S. Fein berg, Red Williams and Laps. D. McCord and they were found to be absolutely accurate. There can be no mistake. So the farmer gets full and fair weight here.

The best buyers in the country seek this market. The best prices are paid right here by men who ship guns before you buy. direct to New York and even to 24sep-4t. Liverpool and who have all the advantages of cut treight rates. So in every conceivable style from 75 cts. and stopping at the Linden. the price will be the best.

This is a convenient market, giving you the best price and true china wear, at bottom prices at weights, and then we have a splendid market for the goods you need to buy. Pulaski sells goods as cheap as any market in the south, very cheap.

The North Alabama cotton that used to seek this market is seeking it again. Buyers are making special effort to offer such prices in have his riends call and see him.
